AWARD

(Passed on this 1st day of November, 2010)

In exercise of the powers conferred under clause D of sub-section 1 of Section 10(1) of the Industrial Disputes Act, the Government of Goa referred the dispute vide 28/42/2002-LAB/62 dated 19-1-04, for adjudication to this Tribunal and the schedule reads as under:

"(1) Whether the action of the M/s. Goa Shipyard Ltd., Vasco-da-Gama, Goa, in dismissing Shri Ramesh D. Muley, St/Fitter, with effect from 30-4-2003 is legal and justified?

(2) If not, what relief the Workman is entitled to?"

2. Upon receipt of notice, both parties appeared and filed their claim and written statement vide Exb. 3 and 7 respectively. The re-joinder was filed by Party I at Exb. 8 and thereafter issues were framed vide Exb. 9. Issue Nos. 1 and 2 were treated as preliminary issues and both parties led evidence on the said issues and thereafter vide Order dated 28-4-09 Exb. 17, my learned predecessor answered issue No. 1 in the negative holding that the departmental enquiry was conducted in fair and proper manner. Similarly, issue No. 2 is answered in the affirmative wherein it has been held that the charge of misconduct levelled against the Party I is held to be proved. Thus, the issue which is now under consideration is issue No. 3 i.e. whether the action of Party II in dismissing the services of Party I is legal and justified. The issue at Exb. 9 reads as under together with findings against it.

|--|---|
| 1. Whether the Party I prove that the domestic enquiry held against him is not fair and proper? | Negative (As per Order dated 28-4-09). |
| 2. Whether the charges of misconduct levelled against the Party I are proved to the satisfaction of the Tribunal by acceptable evidence? | Affirmative (As per Order dated 28-4-09). |
| 3. Whether the Party I prove that the action of the Party II in dismissing him from service with effect from 30-4-2003 is illegal and unjustified? | Negative. |
| 4. Whether the Party I is entitled to any relief? | As per order below. |
| 5. What Award ? | |

3. The Party I led evidence with regard to issue No. 3 by filing his affidavit in evidence at Exb. 18 and thereafter Party II led evidence by examining one Subhash Khandolkar. I have perused the entire record as well as the submissions advanced by the learned counsel for both parties. Adv. S. Gaonkar appearing for Party I has strongly contended that the Workman had put in 22 years of service which has not been considered at all while imposing punishment. He then disclosed that remaining absent is not considered as major indiscipline or major misconduct and even otherwise the same was accounted for by submitting medical certificate. There was no financial loss to the employer due to the absence of the Workman. He then claimed that the Workmen could have been considered for the Voluntary Retirement Scheme. However, the disciplinary authority imposed the maximum punishment without considering all aspects and thus the punishment awarded is shockingly disproportionate to the misconduct. He then submitted that the Party II is a State within article 12 of the constitution and should have considered the application or the request of the Workman for Voluntary Retirement or if he could have been retired compulsorily. Past service which was unblemished and stretched for 22 years has not been considered at all. In this respect he placed reliance on certain decisions which will be considered at the relevant stage.

4. Learned counsel Shri P. J. Kamat appearing for Party II has invited my attention to the observation of this Tribunal while deciding the issue Nos. 1 and 2 wherein the misconduct against the Party I for unauthorized absence stands proved and Party I remained absent unauthorisedly for 47 months. Thus, it is clear that the Workman had no option but to join the duty or to produce medical certificate and he was only interested in getting Voluntary Retirement. Once such claim was rejected, it was not open for Party I to remain absent without any authorization and such long period is itself sufficient to impose punishment of dismissal. He also placed reliance on certain decisions in support of his contention.

FINDINGS

5. Issue No. 3: In the present matter Party I was employed as a structural fitter with Party II and he remained absent from 6-5-99 on the ground of sickness. He also submitted an application for Voluntary Retirement Scheme on medical grounds however, such application was not considered since Party I failed to complete certain formalities before considering his application for Voluntary Retirement Scheme. Subsequently, charge sheet was issued for remaining absent unauthorisedly and thereafter a departmental enquiry was conducted. Even though a charge sheet was served upon Party I which is dated 26-12-2001, he did not participate in the enquiry proceedings and therefore the enquiry proceeded ex parte. The enquiry report dated 3-2-03 was submitted by the enquiry officer and copy of findings were served on Party I vide letter dated 6-2-03. The reply of Party I was considered but the same was not found satisfactory and therefore the punishment of dismissal was imposed vide letter dated 30-4-2003. It is the contention of Party II that the Workman remained absent on the pretext of sickness only to get benefit of the scheme for Voluntary Retirement on medical grounds but he was actually fit to work and therefore he remained absent before the medical officer for the check up to find out whether the Workman was actually unfit. The observations of this Tribunal while deciding issue Nos. 1 and 2 are very material and at the concluding portion the aspect of Voluntary Retirement Scheme was considered and it has been held that mere opting for the scheme would not ipso facto entitle Party I for the benefit under the scheme as of right. However, Party I was required to follow the procedure set out in the scheme and the acceptance of the application for Voluntary Retirement Scheme was only upon the satisfactory compliance with the terms and conditions of the scheme. The Party I failed to report for duty after rejection of his request for Voluntary Retirement Scheme and therefore his absence from duty was unauthorized which is considered as a misconduct under Clause 29(VI) of the Certified Standing Orders of the company. Thus, it is clear that the rejection of Voluntary Retirement Scheme application was somewhere in the year 2000 itself. In spite of this, Party I failed to attend the duty and therefore it was observed that such absence from duty becomes unauthorized. It is required to note that any scheme launched by the department or the company is on the basis of certain procedure to be adopted and each and every worker is not entitled to claim such benefit unless he is falling in the capacity mentioned in the scheme. Apart from it the management is having sole discretion either to accept or to reject any application for Voluntary Retirement. Thus, such aspect raised on behalf of Party I, cannot be considered for converting the maximum punishment into a Voluntary Retirement Scheme or the aspect of compulsory retirement.

6. Learned counsel Shri Gaonkar placed reliance in the case of Shri Jagdish Singh v/s Punjab Engineering College & others reported in 2009 II CLR 514 wherein the apex court has observed that the courts and the Tribunal can interfere with the decisions of the disciplinary authority only when they are satisfied that the punishment imposed by such authority is shockingly disproportionate to the gravity of the charges alleged and proved against delinquent employee and not otherwise.

7. He then relied upon the case of Bholi Malhotra v/s Bank of Baroda L.P.A. No. 581 of 2009 (O&M) decided on 16-2-2010 by Punjab and Haryana High Court wherein it has been held that long services of the employee is to be taken into account while imposing punishment.

8. He further relied upon case of Madras Refineries Ltd. v/s V. Jayakumar and Another wherein Madras High Court has held that when the Tribunal found that absence from duty was neither willful nor wanton, the aspect of Voluntary Retirement could be considered.

9. Learned counsel Shri Gaonkar placed reliance on the Madras High Court decisions in the case of S. Srinivasan v/s The Presiding Officer (Writ

Petition No. 11029 of 1997 dated 28-3-03 wherein it was observed that the petitioner has already crossed the age of superannuation, it will be justified in imposing punishment of compulsory retirement and directing payment of full pension.

10. Learned counsel further relied upon the case of A. V. Mohal v/s Senior Superintendent of Post Office and others CDJ 1990 SC 265 wherein it was held that in facts and circumstances of that case the penalty of removal from service was reduced to that of compulsory retirement. In the case of Mohan Lal Sharma v/s Union of India reported in RLW 2008(2) Rajanthan 1037, the Rajanthan High Court has considered the services of 24 years put in by the Workman and held that the punishment of removal from service is shockingly disproportionate. In the case of Raghunath Prasad Sharma v/s State of Rajasthan and others on 30-5-2007 RLW 2007(3) Raj 2459. The High Court has held that the person having put in whole life in the service of the State till he attains the age of superannuation always require human considerations. Technicalities of rules and regulations are not required to be followed just in a mechanical manner so as to frustrate the very purpose of the scheme.

11. Learned counsel Shri Kamat appearing for the Party II placed reliance on the decisions of Apex Court in the case of Delhi Transport Corporation v/s Sardar Singh 2004 III CLR 289 wherein the Apex Court has held that when the employee absents himself from duty, without sanctioned leave for very long period it prima facie shows lack of interest in work. Habitual absence is a factor which establishes lack of interest in the work. There cannot be any sweeping generalization but at the same time some telltale features can be noticed and pressed into service to arrive at conclusion in the departmental enquiries. The conclusion regarding negligence and lack of interest can be arrived at by lacking into the period of absence. Most particularly when the same is unauthorized. Burden is on the employee who claims that there was no negligence and/or lack of interest to establish it by placing relevant material.

12. The learned counsel Shri Kamat also relied upon the case of L&T Komatsu Ltd. v/s N. Udayakumar wherein the Apex Court has held that it is well established that habitual absenteeism is gross violation of discipline. He again placed reliance in the case of General Manager, Appellate Authority, Bank of India and another and Mohd. Nizamuddin reported in 2005-06 SCLJ 580 wherein the Apex Court has held that it is well settled principle of law that the gravity of misconduct must necessarily be measured in terms of the nature of the misconduct. In that case the bank officer holding the post of Middle Management Officer Grade II which is a responsible post absented himself unauthorisedly for about three years which is undoubtedly detrimental to the public interest cannot be said to be not grave misconduct which would warrant dismissal from service. There can never be a more grave misconduct than a bank officer holding a responsible post absenting himself unauthorisedly for a period of 3 years detrimental to the public interest.

13. The last judgment relied upon by Shri Kamat is that of Mr. Pandurang Vithal Kevne v/s Bharat Sanchar Nigam Ltd., (Telecom Factory) reported in 170 decided by the Bombay High Court wherein it was observed that unauthorized absence which is habitual is a misconduct which exhibits irresponsibility with lack of interest in work.

14. Coming back to the facts of present matter, the charges levelled against Party I are remaining absent without leave/permission from 6-5-99 till date of charge sheet dated 26-12-01. It is also a fact that even after receipt of the charge sheet Party I failed to join the duty and the enquiry was conducted in absence of Party I but by giving fair opportunity. Finally, upon conclusion of the enquiry, show cause notice was issued to the Party I alongwith the findings of the enquiry officer. In spite of this, he failed to join duty or produce sufficient material before the disciplinary authority to show that his absence was not habitual, not intentional but was due to specific reasons beyond his control. The order of dismissal was served upon Party I after considering all the aspects and specifically when Party I failed to attend the duty from 6-5-99 till he was removed from service, which comes to nearly four years.

The decisions relied upon by the learned counsel for Party I could be distinguished since in all these decisions absenteeism is at the most for few months. Similarly, in all the above decisions it was observed that such absenteeism was not willful and therefore it was not considered as gross violation. However, the fact of the present matter are totally different and the record clearly show that the Workman applied under the specific scheme of Voluntary Retirement Scheme on medical grounds and it was informed to the Workman that his application will be considered only if he is able to complete all required formalities including the medical check up and certificate from the Chief Medical Officer of the company or the report from concerned doctor from GMC. It is admitted fact that the Workman failed to attend the office of Chief Medical Officer whenever called and also failed to produce any certificate regarding his illness from GMC for considering his application under Voluntary Retirement Scheme. After rejection of the application for Voluntary Retirement the Workman was duty bound either to produce necessary medical certificate to show his absence as genuine and legal or to report for duty. He failed to do either of them and remained absent unauthorisedly for continuous period though he was served with charge sheet and till thereafter he was dismissed from service. The conduct of Party I writ large from the above facts and the only conclusion could be drawn is that he lacked the interest to work and was only interested in getting the Voluntary Retirement under the scheme but failed to submit the necessary papers to show that he was coming within the scheme. Therefore, the misconduct proved against Party I is not only habitual but considered to be gross violation on the part of the employee to the discipline and therefore the decisions of the Apex Court in the case of Delhi Transport Corporation & L & T Komatsu Ltd. are attracted to the facts and circumstances of the matter in hand. It was held in the case of L & T Komatsu after citing various decisions that the jurisdiction to interfere with the punishment could be exercised only when the punishment is shockingly disproportionate and that each case had to be decided on its facts. The Industrial Tribunal has to act within four corners of law and it could not sit in appeal. Even the decisions of the employer unless there existed statutory provisions in that behalf. The Tribunal could not interfere with the quantum of punishment based on irrational/extraneous factors and certainly not on what it considers as compassionate grounds. Therefore, the decisions cited by the learned counsel for Party I are not helpful to the facts and circumstances of the case in hand as the period of absenteeism in such cases was very short and that to unintentional. In the present matter, period of absenteeism is for 47 months and it was intentional so that the employer could consider the request of Voluntary Retirement of Party I. In such circumstances it cannot be said that the punishment imposed on Party I is shockingly disproportionate. In other words, there is no material to justify the contention of Party I that the order of dismissal is unjustified or illegal. Thus, I answer the issue No. 3 in negative.

Issue Nos. 4 & 5: Since the Workmen has failed to prove issue Nos. 1 & 3 whereas the employer succeeded in proving issue No. 2 and therefore the Workman is not entitled for any relief as claimed in statement of claim. Thus the following.

ORDER

The workers were not offered any compensation or wages nor paid with the bonus for the previous financial year of 1997-98. No notice of retrenchment lay off, lockout or closure was issued by the employer thus the Workmen claimed that the action of the employer should be considered as illegal and all the Workmen should be reinstated with continuity in service and full back wages.

5. The written statement filed at Exb. 6 by the employer show that M/s. Blowcan Industries was a proprietary concern of Shri Vaman Kelekar and he was carrying out the said business till the closure of it. The said business was carried out at shed No. P-33 at Bethora Industrial Estate by employing 31 Workmen. Somewhere in the year 1996 there was oral settlement between the Workmen and the Employer whereby it was agreed that each Workmen will get increase of Rs. 700/- per month in his wages w.e.f. 1-4-97 and the settlement was effective for period of 4 years. Somewhere on 29-11-1997 the Union informed the Employer about joining of the Workmen as members and they served the charter of demands proposing the enchasement of wages @ 300% and the said term was too much excessive and therefore opposed by the Employer. The Union instigated the Workmen who started indulging in going slow, indiscipline, disorderly behaviour. the Workmen also started damaging the sophisticated machinery, planting sharp iron nails outside the factory premises, in order to prevent removal of finished goods. By these activities there was considerable fall in the production and as such the number of work orders were breached resulting in substantial loss due to such case it was not conducive for the working of the establishment in peaceful, normal and profitable manner and therefore the Employer was constrained to close his establishment from 8-9-98 and services of all Workmen were terminated w.e.f. 10-9-98 vide Order dated 9-9-98. All the Workmen were requested to collect their final settlement dues on 13-9-98 from the office of the establishment.

6. By way of re-joinder the Workmen claimed that the establishment is in operation on some other place and the closure is illegal as claimed by the employer. They denied allegations of going slow and indiscipline at the work place and claimed that the Employer adopted unfair labour practice.

7. considering rival contentions, issues were framed vide Exb. 8 by my learned predecessor which reads as under together with my findings against it.

- | | |
|--|---------------|
| 1. Whether the Party I proves that the Party II terminated the services of the Workmen with effect from 9-9-98 which is illegal and unjustified? | Negative. |
| 2. Whether the Party II proves that the services of the Workmen were terminated with effect from 10-9-98 on account of the closure of the establishment with effect from 8-9-98? | Affirmative. |
| 3. Whether the Party I/Workmen are entitled to any relief? | Negative. |
| 4. What Award? | As per order. |

8. Shri Anand Betkikar stepped into the witness box for the Workman and examined one Jayant Kaulekar. Thereafter, the propretor of Party II filed his affidavit vide Exb. 12 subsequently it was informed that the said proprietor Shri Vaman expired. Thereafter, his son by name Sohan filed his affidavit at Exb. 20 and produced documents such as notice of closure and order of termination of the Workmen. Record show that no one appeared on behalf of Party I after the death of the proprietor and the witness examined by Party II is not even cross examined. Subsequently, notices were issued to Party I but no one appeared and thereafter written submissions were file on behalf of Party II at Exb. 26. Since no one appeared on behalf of the Workmen, though they were duly served by notices issued on 2nd September, 2010, matter was fixed for Award. I have perused the entire record as well as written submissions filed by Party II and on that basis I propose to discuss the issues as under.

FINDINGS

9. Issue Nos. 1, 2 and 3: The above issues are taken for joint discussion since they are interconnected and also to avoid repetition of facts.

10. the main contention on behalf of Workmen is that after they joined the Union and served charter of demands on the Employer, he illegally locked the factory from 7-9-98 and shifted the entire machinery to other establishments. It is also their contention that their workers were neither offered nor paid wages for the month of August, 1998, bonus for the previous year 1997-98 and other legal dues. The witness examined by Party I has deposed about the case put forth by the Workmen and claimed that the said factory belongs to Kelekar family and the said family is having their establishment at different places carrying similar production. However except oral statements, no document is placed on record to show that the establishment is owned by the family specifically when the written statement filed on record by the Employer show that it was a proprietary concern of Shri Vaman Kelekar Therefore, such aspect that the establishment belongs to the family of Kelekar cannot be accepted for any specific evidence produced on record. Secondly this witness has disclosed that the employer terminated the services of 26 Workmen whose names are mentioned in the reference and illegally locked out its factory from 7-9-98. He claimed that Party II removed some machinery from the premises and took it towards Mollem side. These aspects were informed in writing to Deputy Labour Commissioner, Panaji and such letters are produced on record. He claimed that neither notice pay nor retrenchment compensation was paid to the Workmen. Wages for the month of August, '98 were not offered, the bonus was also not paid. The Deputy Labour Commissioner called Party II for conciliation proceedings but he failed to attend and therefore the failure report was submitted. During the cross examination it was put to him that the Workmen indulged in unfair labour practice at the instigation of the Union and adopted go slow method for pressurizing the management to accept the unrealistic demand. It was also put to him that in view of such tactics the Employer suffered loss and therefore he was compelled to close the factory on 8-9-98. However, it was put to him that the Employer terminated the services of the Workmen from 10-9-98 by issuing letters of termination dated 9-9-98 giving the reason of closure of the factory. Further, it was put to him that in the said letter workers were asked to collect their final settlement dues from the office on 13-9-98.

He denied all these suggestions and claimed that the Employer adopted unfair labour practices.

11. The second witness by name Jayant deposed that he was working as operator with Party II since 1987 and he alongwith their workers joined the Union somewhere in November, 1997. The Union submitted the charter of demand to Party II vide the letter dated 2-3-98. He then claimed that he worked with Party II till 6-9-98 and attended the duty for the first shift on 7-9-98 but found the factory locked. He then claimed that the Party II did not pay wages for the month of August, 1998 and the wages for six days of September, 1998. Similarly, bonus for the period 1997-98 was not paid. He further claimed that Party II failed to pay retrenchment compensation, gratuity notice pay and leave wages when their services were terminated. This witness in the examination in chief admitted that before joining the present Union, there was no Union of the workers but they entered into oral agreement with Party II wherein he agreed for revision of wages, paying incentives of the workers who were regular in attendance etc. He then admitted that Party II closed its factory at Bethora Industrial Estate and removed all the machinery. During cross examination this witness admitted that after entering into oral agreement with Party II, their Union submitted another charter of demand asking for raise in wages. He denied the suggestion that since the Employer did not agree to settle such demand of the Union the workers resorted to go slow tactics and also damaged machinery. However, he admitted that as on today the factory of Party II is closed and the same is closed from 7-9-98. He again admitted that Party II had sent a letter asking them to collect their dues. He further admitted that they went to the office of Party II but the Workmen refused to accept the amount offered to them and told the Employer that other legal dues should be paid to them.

12. During the present proceedings Employer filed his affidavit but he could not step into the witness box and it was reported that the Employer expired on 17-4-07. Copy of Death Certificate is also produced on record. The application at Exb. 17 was filed for bringing legal heirs of Shri Vaman Kelekar and the same was allowed since no objection was given. Thereafter one of the legal heir of deceased Employer namely Sohan stepped into the witness box and filed his affidavit at Exb. 20 wherein he deposed that his father was sole proprietor of M/s. Blowcan Industries and his father expired on 17-4-07. He then deposed that somewhere in November, 1996 his late father entered into mutual and oral settlement with the Workmen effective from 1-4-97 by which each Workman, was given increase of Rs. 700/- per month as wages and the settlement was for a period of 4 years ending on 31-3-01. However, somewhere in November, 1997 Workmen joined Union and thereafter vide letter dated 2-3-98 the charter of demand for revision of wages and other incentives was served. Since the effect of oral settlement was not over and the monetary burden was much beyond the capacity of the Employer the said charter of demand was opposed. Thereafter, workers started delaying the process by adopting go slow method and thus the production was affected which resulted in cancelling of work orders and subsequently loss to the Employer. There was no other alternative but to close the establishment and therefore the notice was issued to all 31 Workmen including 26 covered under the present reference dated 8-9-98, that their services stands terminated with effect from 10-9-98. In addition to this individual termination letters were issued under certificate of posting and by such letters Workmen were requested to collect their dues from office on 13-9-98. The establishment was permanently closed from 8-9-98. Therefore, he claimed that the Workmen are not entitled for any relief of reinstatement and back wages as claimed in the present reference. Through this witness the notice of closure dated 9-9-98 is produced at Exb. 22 which show that the employer has taken the decisions to close the establishment due to unavoidable circumstances beyond his control and therefore services of the Workmen stands terminated from 10-9-98. Similarly he has produced the order of termination issued to each Workman vide Exb. 23 colly and forwarded under certificate of posting wherein it was disclosed that the Workmen is advised to collect his final settlement dues from the establishment office on 13-9-98. There is absolutely no cross examination of this witness on behalf of Party I even though opportunities were given. The contention of the witness i.e. son of the deceased Employer has gone unchallenged together with documentary evidence produced by him on record.

13. On thing is required to be considered in the present matter is the aspect of previous oral settlement between the Workmen and the Employer, though denied initially and specifically by the witness No. 1 but admitted by the Workmen examined witness No. 2. It is clear that there was earlier settlement which was extensive and binding on the parties and this aspect is further clear from the reply of the Employer dated 13-3-98 produced at Exb. W-5. The Union though denied about such settlement, record show that there was such settlement and the same was not terminated by the Workmen as it was extended or agreed before them joining the Union. Apart from this, the contention of the Employer that the Workmen adopted go slow tactics and therefore production suffered which ultimately resulted in closing the unit has not been rebutted at all.

14. In the case of Anchor Industries Employees Union v/s Anchor Industries and 33 others reported in Bom L.R. 56 it has been observed that once the Tribunal finds that an Employer has closed its factory as a matter of fact it is not concerned to go into the question as to the motive which guided him and to go to conclusion that because of the previous history of the dispute between the Employer and the employee, closure was not justified such closure cannot give rise to Industrial Dispute.

15. In the case of Lal Bhavta Hotel Aur Bakery Mazdoor Union v/s Ritz Pvt. Ltd., 2007 Vol ALL MR 74. The Hon'ble Bombay High Court has considered the earlier decision of the constitutional bench in the case of M/s. Hathising Manufacturing Co. Ltd. v/s Union of India AIR 1960 Supreme Court 923 wherein the distinction between Section 25F on one hand and Section 25FFF on the other hand was considered and was held that by Section 25F there is prohibition against retrenchment until the conditions prescribed by that section are fulfilled. By 25 Section FFF(I), termination of employment on closure of the undertaking without payment of compensation and without either serving notice or paying wages in lieu of notice, is not prohibited. Payment of compensation and payment of wages for the period of notice are not therefore conditions precedent to closure. The Hon'ble Bombay High Court, on the basis of above discussion of the constitutional bench is accepted and observed in para 9 as under.

"Consequently having regard to the settled position in law laid down by the Constitution Bench and followed thereafter, the requirement of paying compensation and of issuing a notice or wages in lieu thereof under sub-section (1) of Section 25FFF as if the Workman had been retrenched cannot be placed on the same footing as the requirement under Section 25F. In the present case the letter of termination intimated to the Workman that the compensation together with one month's salary in lieu of notice had been kept ready together with other legal dues. The witness who deposed on behalf of the management stated during the course of his deposition that he legal dues were collected by the Workman subsequently. In these circumstances, it cannot be said that there was any breach of the requirements of Section 25FF A and Section 25FFF of the Industrial Disputes, 1947."

16. The position emerging from above decisions clearly show that the establishment of Party II was closed by issuing notices and the letters were forwarded to the Workman regarding termination of their services with clear understanding that they should collect their legal dues from the office on 13-9-98. The witness No. 2 Shri Jayant has admitted in cross examination that said letter was received by him as well as by other Workmen and they even went to the office of Party II but all Workmen refused to accept the amount offered by the Employer. The provisions of Chapter V-B of the Industrial Disputes Act is not applicable since the establishment of Party II was a small unit having in all 31 workers only. Thus, this Tribunal cannot go into the correctness or otherwise of the closure but only it has to find out that such closure is genuine and effective. This fact is admitted by witness No. 2 of Party I during cross examination. The said factory is closed from 8-9-98 and since then there is no activity in the said premises. The Employer gave notice and offered legal dues which Workman refused to accept. When the closure of the establishment is accepted and found as genuine, the Workman are not entitled for any reinstatement and back wages. At the most the workers were entitled to receive their legal dues on the basis of termination due to closure which was offered to them but they refused to accept. In the result it cannot be said that the termination is illegal and unjustified. On the other hand it is to be considered that the termination was on account of closure of the establishment and hence I answer the issue No. 1 as not proved. Issue No. 2 as proved and issue No. 3 as not proved.

17. With the above discussion, it is clear that the claim raised by the Workmen is not at all justified and therefore I answer the same as under.

ORDER

The action of the management of M/s. Blow Can Industries, Bethora Industrial Estate, Ponda, Goa, in terminating the services of the above Workmen with effect from 9-9-1998, is legal and justified.
